

IT WOULDN'T HAPPEN TO ME...WOULD IT?

From time to time we can all suffer from 'it wouldn't happen to me' syndrome and we know the same goes for organisations, SMEs and business owners who might think they don't need all the support provided under the AXA MLP.

In our experience we know that in the course of running a business anyone can fall foul of operational setbacks such as employment disputes with disgruntled employees, inspections and breaches of one or more regulatory rules, clashes with stakeholders or cash flow crisis through a third party complaint - all of which will cost money and time, not to mention damage to profits and reputation.

So what is the solution?
